PAINE, WEBBER & CO.'S GOSSIP.

Lake Superior authorities state that the Lake lode at the fifth level is close to 100 feet in width, measuring perpendicular to the incline. The second mill test was made on rock taken from the crosscut at the fifth level. The last 15 feet of the richest part of the lode was not included in the sample test. A new lode recently exposed by the shaft, is located about 100 feet under the Lake lode and on the foot wall side. Since this new lode was encountered the shaft has continued downward about 25 feet and has been getting further into the lode until now the copper bearing formation occupies about one half of the area of the bottom of the shaft. The width and other details concerning the new lode are unknown but it is stated to show up remarkably rich rock so far as it has been exposed. There is an abundance of barrel and small mass copper matrix in high grade stamp rock. The sinking of the shaft has been suspended while the plan for the sixth level is being cut.

Considerable increase in the amount and quality of ore is noticeable in the Arizona-Commercial Copper property. It is estimated that by the first of the year the monthly output of copper from the mine will exceed 1,000,000 pounds per month. The company is extending the spur of their road to the Superior and Boston and within the next thirty days that company will begin shipping ore to the Arizona-Commercial smelter. Some 400 men are at present employed at the Arizona-Commercial and the completion of the smelter and machine shop and also the fact that the drifting on the lower level will start immediately upon the completion of the station on the level will give room for many more. Considerable water has been struck on the 700-foot level, but this is now being handled by the pumps recently installed.

The stamping of the Tamarack rock in the Calumet and Hecla mills will begin about January 1st and the exchange of mills is likely to make 1910 the most prosperous year Tamarack has had for a long time. A pound or two, or three or four per ton of rock additional yield, will help on the large tonnage Tamarack is sending to the mill.

GAY & STURGIS GOSSIP.

Calumet, Mich., Dec. 7.—While the general market showed no great activity there was a steady advance in prices. The president's message was rather a tame affair and considered favorable from a stock market standpoint.

North Butte was the weak feature in Boston, selling down to 59 1/4. Conservative brokers are suspicious of this apparent weakness in North Butte and credit the manipulators with a desire to buy stocks at the lowest possible figure rather than to sell long stocks as the lower prices were made on small transactions. Lake was again active with only fractional fluctuations. The local curbs attracted little attention, though several of the Duluth issues, such as Live Oak and Warrior were in good demand.

Santa Rosalia was strong as usual with little stock offering. The balance of the list was quiet. New York, Dec. 7.—The fear of a special message to be sent to congress on the Sherman anti-trust law was undoubtedly responsible for the conservative feeling existing after the close, and caused traders to carry but little stock over night. Little or nothing was heard of the proposed copper merger except the fact of several minor consolidations to take place before the merger was consummated. I understand the buying of Steel from 88 up has been of excellent character. People who had the tip to buy from 49 up and who were sold out on a scale up from 90 have been advised to buy their stock back. The knowledge of this to certain houses has resulted in quite a large following on the bull side. The buying of Reading yesterday was largely the result of the shorts covering but I see no reason to change my position on this stock and suggest buying on weak days. Commission houses continue to carry large lines and for that reason I am still inclined to advise sales of the general list on rallies. Traders are long of Cons. Gas. If they are shaken out I would buy it.—J. H. W.

New York, Dec. 7.—American stocks in London quiet but firm 1/2 to 3/4 above parity.

Buffalo Rochester and Eastern application for rehearing before public service commission comes up today.

President's message to congress today.

Government crop report today at 1 o'clock.

Defalcations estimated at $1,000,000 discovered in Phoenix Insurance company of Brooklyn by insurance department.

London settlement begins tomorrow. Locomotive firemen and railroad conductors will join trainmen in asking 10 per cent advance on eastern roads.

London market generally quiet and featureless.

Volume of new steel orders continues to increase although December is usually a slow month.

Managers of Hill roads claim they are taking freight for any point without restrictions and consider strike situation improving.

Coney Island and Brooklyn railroad shows surplus of $182,809 against $305,000, 1909.—Dow, Jones & Co.

New York, Dec. 7.—St. Louis pfd. declared semi-annual dividend of 2 1/2 per cent on preferred placing it on 5 per cent basis. Six months ago an initial dividend of 2 per cent was declared.—Dow, Jones & Co.

Granby dividend, payable December 3, to stock of record December 15.

STOCKS

Boston.—The market was waiting for the president's message and when it came out found it conservative and some the whole list had a small rally. The local market was quiet with North Butte the weakest feature. It rallied at the close and looked better. Hancock was in good demand all day. We look for a traders' market for some time to come but think it safe to buy on all weak spots.—Paine, Webber & Co.

Gay & Sturgis says:
Boston, Dec. 7.—The president's message was the chief item of interest today and it was mild enough. The market proceeded to celebrate it in a desultory way. The tone was good all day but interest was slight. In all probability the rally has gone about as far as it will pending the appearance of the president's special message on the trust problem which is the all-important topic. Copper was some firmer abroad but no business of consequence seems to be doing. The usual predictions of a January rise are current as they are every year. The big people are too outspokenly bullish to be buying stocks. North Butte was under manipulation for the decline.—J. J. Sturgis.

J. A. Minnear & Co. say today:
From a market standpoint today was uneventful as far as the effect of President Taft's message to congress was concerned. This message was absolutely without influence on price changes and indicates that the chief executive is not going to follow in the path of his predecessor and run against corporations. This naturally should have a favorable influence on the market. Closing prices on the whole were a little stronger. An attempt was made to raid North Butte during the day and this stock sold down to 59 1/4, but later rallied a point. Lake was tipped for a rise today, but this failed to materialize. The majority of the copper shares were little changed for the day. The heavy buying of Warrior and Live Oak advanced both of these issues.

He works out regularly with all comers and is showing exceptionally fine form. It is expected that he will make a good showing against the big Duluth colored fighter.

AID FOR ACTOR'S KIN.

Big Benefit in Philadelphia For Sisters of a Comedian.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 7.—A big benefit performance was given at the Chestnut Street Theatre this afternoon in aid of Miss Florence and Miss Laura Reed, sisters of the late Roland Reed, the well known comedian. The two sisters, now elderly women and destitute, were recently found living in a hovel in the slums of this city, often sleeping on park benches, and always in the shadow of starvation. During Mr. Reed's life he maintained for them a comfortable home, but after his death they soon lost, through lack of business training and their own generosity, the small estate he left.

Messrs. Nixon and Zimmermann, Francis Wilson and other well known members of the theatrical profession contributed their services to the benefit performance. Many others who were unable to take part sent liberal checks to aid in the relief of the destitute women.

The finest line of fancy combs, pins and hat pins for Christmas can be found at Miss R. M. Baker, hairdresser, 105 5th street.
